RAPID WATER WINS GALLOPING

SMATHERS'S COLT TAKES KINGS COUNTY. MANDICAP.

His Stable Mate Eurleigh, However, Harily Beaten in an Overnight Lyent-Leth Valentine's Rosedate-Fist, a 100 to 1 Shot, Succeeds-Six, Pavorites Lose.

Rapid Water, with 150 bounds on his back, and running in the colors of S. E. Smathers, won the Kings County Handleap, one mile and a sixteenth, at Jamaica yesterday, over a slow track. The big Rapallo coit was at his best, getting away from the barrier without mishap and winning all the way in the most impressive manner. Lyne was easing him at the end, where he passed the judges with two and a half lengths to spare in 1:47. His performance showed conclusively that, if the Excelsion Hundicap, on the opening day of the meeting, had been truly run, he would probably have won it, for as Lyne stated after yesterday's race, Rapid Water stumbled two or three times after the start in the Exelsion, which prevented him from making the ranning, as in the Kings County. The talenthid not fancy Mr. Smathers's colt to any great extent, as he went up in the prices to to 2, while Alex Shields's St. Valentine was generously backed at 11 to 5, with Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right at threes and James R. Keene's Sinister at 7 to 2. Rapid Water gave scale weight to everything in the race, including sixteen pounds to E. G. Stutte's Sidney C. Love, a 15 to 1 shot, who made his first appearance of the season in the East, and, receiving a good ride from Hilderbrand, was a contender all the way, landing the place by a length and a half from St. Valentine, who was shut off at several stages, together with Sinister. The same may be said of Ormonde's Right, who received a beating that surprised those who saw him gailop off with the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct.

But the success of Rapid Water was offset by his stable companion Burleigh, who carried the Smathers silks in the last race, a handicap at six furlongs. Burleigh, like Rapid Water, picked up top weight, and was so high in the public favor that he closed a hot favorite at 6 to 5. He got away poorly he was compelled to work his way the leaders gradually, a proceeding tently took everything out of the Ber from New York, 20 to 1, who carried a feather, and had two lengths over R. E. Watkins's Flyback, 12 to 1. Race King, 4 to 1, was half a length back, with Monet close behind. The time was 1:13 -5.

After a number of disappointing performances W. C. Fessenden's Lady Valentine, 12 to 5, second choice, managed to win her first race when she took the Rosedale Stakes for two-year-old fillies, four and a half ferform. Burns had her under a fierce drive, however, to win by a nose, as H. T. Griffin's Avisson, 6 to 1, an added starter, was catching her with every jump at the end, James E. Keene's Pythia, 9 to 1, was third, three lengths awas. Newton Bennington's Edna Jackson, the Tavorite, was outrun from the start. The time; was 0.551-5 the Tavorite, was outrun from the start. The time was 0.55 t-5.

The sport opened with a crushing blow for the growd who had made Mike Clancy's Tommy Waddell the favorite in the first race for three-year-olds, six furlongs. Fiat, a 100 to 1 chot, with Diggins, a stable boy up, got home in a drive by a length and a haif, with the favorite, after hard racing luck, in the blace, a neck before The Gaddiy, 4 to 1, who was repeatedly run into pockets. Big Tim, Sullivan's Hannibal Bey, 15 to 1, was a length away. The time was 1:15.

Kansas Price put Hillebrand on Uncle Urigh in the second race at a mile and 70 yards and the Maxio gelding made a runaway of its coming home in a gallop with three lengths in 1:60. Uncle Urigh was second choice at 7:to 2, Whorler, the favorite, getting the place by a head from Gold Dome, 20 to 1. Orly II., 9 to 2, was five lengths out of the money.

Dave Johnson's Evelyn J., backed down to Orly II.. 9 to 2, was nive lengths out of the money.

Dave Johnson's Evelyn J., backed down to 4 to 1, took the fifth race for maiden two-year-olds, four and a half furiongs, in apreadeagle style. She left her field with a dazzling turn of speed and breezed home four lengths before James R. Keene's Guy Mannering, 7 to 1. H. J. Morris's Evening, 10 to 1, was third, beating Andrew Miller's Cambridge a head. Dr. Coffey, the favorite, was knocked about considerably soon after the start, which was ragged, and never had an opportunity to show his worth. The race was run in 0.35.

In spite of the cold, dreary weather, fully 18,000 persons were at the track, where the books cleaned up thoroughly with the defeat of six straight favorites. The summaries:

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

PIKERS REJOICE AT THE VIC-TORY OF FIAT; 100 TO 1.

Dave Johnson's Misplaced Confidence Costs Him Thousands-Kansas Price's Jockey, Perrine, Set Down-Lichtenstein Declines a $20 Bet on Burlegh.

Flat, the first 100 to 1 shot of the season to win in the East, went across the plate at Jamaica yesterday, and the pikers and long shot players were in high feather. Fiat has run several races here since Aqueduct opened and has been played, too, so that while the bookmakers took extreme libertics with him-some of them putting up as much as 200 to 1-the Knight of the Thistle colt was not entirely overlooked. Fiat is owned by a man named E. Kimball, and is trained M. Hogan. The latter told his friends fore the first race yesterday that the colt had a chance, but his tip only raised a good augh in a majority of instances. But George Hill, whose apprentice, Diggins, had the mount, made two show bets on Fiat, one at 30 to 1 and the other at 25 to 1, and was mentally kicking himself after the race because he did not put down a bet to win. Several books in the field were said to have been hard hit, while two of the books in the big ring were beaten, laying wagers of $1,500 to $10 and $3,000 to $20. Diggins won his first race the other day in an event for non-winning apprentices, so that the rank and file did not regard him seriously. But Hill had so much confidence in the boy that he pro-ceeded to back George Atwell, owned by Hogan and ridden by Diggins, in the fifth race. Atwell was a 200 to 1 shot, but he was not another Fiat, as he ran absolutely last. Dave Johnson, the well known plunger, gave an excellent imitation of a man who sometimes has a poor line on his own horses. Johnson started Evelyn J., a fast filly by Russell-Margery, in the fifth race. The filly on public form was regarded as a formidable factor and the public at large fanoled her enough to make her price drop a point to fours. But Johnson did not look upon her chances with any degree of confidence, for he not only advised his turf associates to keep off, but also put a four figured wager on Sandy McNaugh-ton's Dr. Coffey, who closed a slight favorite over the Russell filly. Furthermore, a book in which Johnson is said to have more than passing interest "laid against" the filly with the result that when she came romping home victorious, the book lost $5,000, while Johnson dropped nearly half that amount because of the crushing defeat sustained by Dr. Coffey. Yet Johnson's troubles did not end here, for when Evelyn J., who was entered to be sold for $500, was offered at auction after the race, an obscure turfman bid her up to $1,200. Trainer Oxx protecting her with the usual $5 increase and sending her back to the barn. The boost netted the Keene stable $350, as Guy Mannering ran second. The result of the race, however, shows that there is honesty in racing even if a man's judgment at times is not of the best. But the plunger previously cleaned up on the victory of Kansas Price's Uncle Urigh.

is not of the best. But the plunger previously cleaned up on the victory of Kansas Price's Uncle Urish.

The performance of Uncle Urish, by the way, brought the stewards to their feet with a jump. The other day the Maxio gelding, a warm favorite, was badly beaten in a six furlongs sprint. His defeat closely followed that of his stable mate, Schoolmate, for which Price was interviewed by the stewards. In yesterday's race Uncle Urish was asked to go a mile and 70 yards instead of six furlongs, and instead of Perrine, the regular stable jockey who had ridden him in his previous race. Price put up Hildebrand. The gelding won from start to finish in such a manner that some persons were inclined to any that he was guilty of a distinct form reversal. After Price had been interviewed by the stewards again he was informed that Perrine had been suspended for the rest of the meeting, though Price, it would seem, convinced the stewards that personally he had not been guilty of wrongdoing. As a matter of fact Price wagered $500 on Uncle Urigh when he was beaten with Perrine up, and also bet $600 on Schoolmate, also ridden by this boy. He proved this to the satisfaction of the stewards, one of whom said that while there was nothing to show that Price had done wrong, it was necessary to protect the racing public by setting down Perrine for "grose incompetency."

"I have been beaten out of $15,000 this spring by Perrine's poor horsemanship." said Price, after his talk with the stewards, "and I decided yesterday not to allow him to ride any more of my horses, with the exception of The Gadfly, in future. Before the first race to-day I engaged Burns to ride in two races for me on Monday, which ought to show that I was through withmy regular boy. I bet $300 on The Gadfly to-day, whereas I only had $50 on him when he won the other day at longer odds. I had a good bet on Uncle Urigh to-day, because I knew that the $800 I lost on him when he won the other day at longer odds. I had a good bet on Uncle Urigh to-day, because I knew that Coast this last winter I wen twenty-seven events."

Price is like other owners and trainers who are forever trying to develop a Jockey. They put up inexperienced boys and bet on them unsuccessfully, when with first class jockeys in the saddle their horses would win easily. In setting Perrine down, the stewards met a popular demand for some sort of redress and showed that they have the interests of racegoers always in mind.

Sol Lichtenstein will succeed in making himself unpopular with bettors if he does not change his tactics. While the betting on the last race was going on Lichtenstein put up 2 to 1 against Burleigh, the favorite, when the price in other books was 8 to 5. Believing that his offer of this hunch price was sincere a quiet looking fellow approached Sol and said:

"I'll bet you twenty on Burleigh!"
"Get away from here!" yelled the bookmaker, whose bankroll is always of corpulent proportions. "You'll bet me nothing:
"Are you a bookmaker or a four flusher?" asked the bettor, warming up.
"Go on now and don't bother me! See! I don't want your money! Get out of this, quiek!"
"Afraid to lose $40, eh?" was the retort."

adick!"

"Afraid to lose $40, eh?" was the retort.

"No wonder the public wants an open ring!"
Goodwin Brothers are getting up an elaborate "official souvenir" to celebrate the opening of Belmont Park next Thursday. It will be profusely illustrated and will contain much interesting turf history.

Balk Line Match. Willie Hoppe won the 1,200 point billiard match, 18 inch, 2 shots in, defeating Jake Schaefer by a score of 1,200 points to 983. The match was played in blocks of 400 points the Knickerbocker Billiard Academy, Brooklyn. At the beginning of last night's play Hoppe had a score of 800 to Schaefer's 530, and it was generally conceded that the "Boy Wonder" would win. Schaefer had to make 670 points while Hoppe made 408: Schaefer had lots of opportunities to win out, but he slipped up several times on easy shots when all his friends thought he had the ivories in good positions to make big runs. On the night's play Schaefer made the biggest score. He added 458 buttons to bis string, averaging 22 13-20, while Hoppe made 400 and averaged 19 1-21. Hoppe made his 1,200 in 53 innings and his average for the match was 22 34-53. Schaefer made 983 in 54 innings and his average in the match WAS 18 11-54.

When the game began Hoppe had an unfinished run of four and the balls were in good position. He added 17 to this. Schaefer made 12 and Hoppe added 17 more to his string. Then Schaefer showed some of his old time form. He gathered in carom after carom and made 7t before he slipped up on a comparatively easy shot. This put him in the lead for the night, but Hoppe at once added 63 to his score, which made his total Schaefer made 0 and his score at the end of the third inning was 92. Hoppe made 31, 23 and 12, while the Wizard scored 22, 11 and 2, and this brought the totals: Hoppe, 183: Schaefer, 135. At the end of the ninth inning the score was: Hoppe, 195: Schaefer, inning the score was: Hoppe, 195; Schaefer, 183;

Hoppe added 7 and Schaefer then got the balls in good shape at the lower end of the table. He coaxed them gently and skifrully and this time he added 117 buttons to his string. After this Hoppe managed to cut down the veteran's lead considerably. The score:

Hoppe—17. 17, 88, 31, 22, 12, 22, 0, 10, 0, 7, 30, 29, 27, 8, 11, 23, 8, 0, 16, 84. Total, 400. High runs, 63, 54, 31, 30. Average, 19 1-21. Grand total, 1,290. Grand average, 28 4-34.
